

BIOGRAPHY

Christopher A. Rozansky, C.M.
Executive Director
Naples Airport Authority

Chris joined the Naples Airport Authority in 2016, where he oversees a dynamic community asset that serves more than $1 billion worth of aircraft on any given day. Naples has become increasingly popular in recent years and now ranks amongst the top 10 busiest airports for private jet activity in the nation.

Over the past 20 years, he has held various positions at airports in Florida, Texas, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He is an alumnus of The Ohio State University.

He has been selected as a Top 40 Under 40 honoree by Airport Business Magazine. The Florida Department of Transportation previously named Chris their Aviation Professional of the Year.

Chris serves on the National Air Transportation Association's (NATA) Board of Directors and is a Vice Chair on the AAAE General Aviation Committee
